

This December, please join us in welcoming back a few of our favorite 2016 artists including Langdon Graves, Casey Gray, Damien Hoar de Galvan, Erin M. Riley, Derek Weisberg and Jake Scharbach. The Winter Group Exhibition includes a diverse array of mediums and methods used that have defined each of their careers, from works on paper, hand died and woven tapestry, to sculpture and oil paintings.

Just over a year ago, Brilliant Champions Gallery opened it's doors in Brooklyn, New York. In that year we've exhibited over 50 artist's contemporary artworks, launched an artist residency program, and engaged communities with intimate artist talks. So, it is our honor to share with you the diligent vision and work of these six artists as we celebrate the first anniversary of Brilliant Champions Gallery!

Be sure to join us December 9, 2016 for the opening reception of our Winter Group Exhibition from 6 - 9pm.
